Don't stop being there for others:

“It is to be noted that Jesus never refused any man's invitation of hospitality. To the end He never abandoned hope of men. To hope to change them, or even to appeal to them, might be the forlornest of forlorn hopes, but He would never let a chance go. He would not refuse even an enemy's invitation. It is as clear as daylight that we will never make our enemies our friends if we refuse to meet them and to talk with them.” Barclay

Have you abandoned the hope of men?

Ultimately, Jesus is that hope. How is that revealed in Luke 14:1-6?

Time to Party: The Wedding Feast

What is the motive?

How have you been exalted?

How will you exalt others at Messiah this week?

A Christian is like someone who is forever at a wedding feast. How is that reflected in your life?

The Cost of Discipleship

What is the cost?

How does your love for Christ compare to your love for everything else around you? Remember in Malachi 3... we robbed God—not just of money—but, of love.

What are some ways that you will share who you are—as a Christian—with the world this week?
